

The Highway to Success

There is, to-day as yesterday, no avenue of opportunity closed to the man who strives earnestly for success.

The man of wealth clips coupons from his bonds—and so, to-day, may his humblest employe.

The man of wealth probably began at the bottom and, like the ambitious worker of to-day, looked into the future, made up his mind what he wanted to be, and then by hard work, frugality and wise investment won his way to success.

The highway of success is open to-day to every man who is willing to pay the price in hard work and strict economy.

First the sayings account, then the bond, the home, the business—all on the highway to success. Any man who will may follow it. He only needs to pay the price.

The Montpelier Savings Bank & Trust Company

"The Old Bank on the Corner,"

Montpelier, Vermont

Depository of the State of Vermont.

THETFORD

Mr. Blake, who recently visited his brother at E. C. Bond's, has returned to his work at Seattle, Wash. Vera Patterson of Springfield, Mass., is visiting Mrs. Helen Slade.

Mrs. E. C. Bond is at Hanover hospital, recovering from an operation. Mrs. Wire returned from the hospital last week.

Mrs. Fred Kibbey is helping care for Mrs. Frances Sanborn.

Mrs. M. T. Pressey is with her son, Vern, at Waverly, Mass. A new granddaughter is the explanation.

Mr. and Mrs. John Morris welcomed a daughter Saturday morning.

Mrs. John Redell has returned from St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Worcester returned Friday, after wintering with their sons in Colorado, Kansas and Minnesota.

The prize speaking in the church Friday evening was an enjoyable affair. This was a contest between the best speakers chosen three from each class in the academy, and was for the purpose of choosing one to represent the school in interstate prize speaking contests at Lebanon. Three Dartmouth students acted as judges. Lucile Emerson won first prize, the second for girls went to Cornelia Preston and for the boys to Robert McKelvey.

WASHINGTON

Washington boy scouts will give the play, "Snobson's Stag Party," followed by a dance, Friday, May 6, at 8:15 sharp. Refreshments served during the evening—adv.

MAGNET THEATRE TO-DAY

—DON'T MISS THIS ONE—

GERALDINE FARRAR in "THE RIDDLE: WOMAN"

Directed by Edward Jose

Glorious in her tigress-like temper, equally exquisite in her wrath as in her tenderest moments. She made this dilettante—the cheater of women—cringe under the scorching fury of her emotion. Then his heart flamed anew with the desire for possession.

WHAT WOMAN CAN UNDERSTAND—

WHAT MAN CAN WITHSTAND—

THE LURE OF A WOMAN'S MOODS

Comedy—"SONNY'S UNCLE VISITS MA", and THE LATEST NEWS

—TO-MORROW—

MARSHALL NEILAN

Presents the Limit in Melodrama, Love and Laughs.

"GO AND GET IT"

Scenario by Marion Fairfax. Photographed by David Kesson. Art director, Ben Carre. A First National Production.

With a Great Comedy, Snap Shots and Topics of the Day

The Theatre With the Orchestra

Matinees at 2:15 Nights 6:45 and 8:30

Same Prices

For Lost Articles Call the Ticket Office.

EAST BROOKFIELD

Upon going to the stable one morning last week, one of A. G. Bigelow's horses was found with a broken leg. Dr. Bancroft was called and the leg was put in a cast and is doing as well as can be expected.

Mrs. Frank Laimson, who has been spending a few weeks with her daughter in Holyoke, Mass., returned home last Friday.

Ralph Wilcox recently purchased a Chevrolet car.

The Weona Community club was pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Sprague last Saturday evening.

Mrs. Ralph Wilcox spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Sprague, in Chelsea.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Smith were in Boston last week on business, making the trip by auto.

Mrs. Edie Newell visited friends in Barre a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Banister and Mrs. Ella Banister recently visited at Clarence Stearns' in North Ferrisburgh. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gay and infant daughter, Helen, from Randolph were at Leonard Farnsworth's last Sunday.

To Occupy Chair of Music.

"My boy, Bennie, is lazy, but I must say he is smart," declared the musician.

"Is he going to follow in his father's footsteps?"

"No, I learned to play the trombone and I've got to march about eight miles every time there's a parade. Bennie is learning the harp, so they will have to let him sit down."—Boston Transcript.

WATERBURY

Large Attendance at Funeral of C. F. Bailey, Held Monday.

The funeral of Charles Frederick Bailey was held from the Methodist Episcopal church Monday afternoon. Because of the illness of his father, the body was taken there in the morning and a prayer service held. The church was filled with friends. There was a large delegation from Winoski lodge, No. 49, F. and A. M., also from the hospital, all members of the staff and heads of departments and attendants who could be spared attending. Beautiful floral tributes bore their sympathy, among them a blanket of white roses from those at the hospital.

Mrs. D. W. Conley, organist, played beautiful hymns while E. G. Miller, a sympathetic manner, sang "Lead, Kindly Light." Rev. George H. Lock officiated, assisted by Rev. L. E. Peabody. Helpful words were spoken by the two pastors, who had been so closely associated with the family. The funeral party was escorted to the cemetery by the Masonic body. The bearers were all from the hospital and were Superintendent E. A. Stanley, William Woods, Arthur Bailey, James Maxwell, Fred Mead and Grant Russell.

Among those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Blake of Rutland, Mrs. Adie Harrington, L. M. Johnson of West Newton, Mass.; Arthur Johnson of Roxbury, Mass.; Mrs. Walter Gray of Hyde Park, Mass.; Mrs. Charles Foy and Mrs. John Morse of Rutland; Elder G. N. Taber of Morrisville; William Palmer and Mrs. Doyle of Montpelier and W. J. Redmond of Enosburg Falls.

Attention is again called to the meetings of the Congregational church and society this evening in the chapel of the church. Matters relative to the calling of a pastor are to be considered.

Inspector Charles T. Pierce of the state automobile department has been in town looking up matters relative to the automobile accident of Sunday night. The fact that the parties were all good friends makes the attaching of blame a hard matter. All the injured ones are doing well, although it was reported last night that another X-ray had shown Taylor's other leg to be broken.

Tuesday forenoon, as Mrs. Mark Eastman was coming home from the grocery, she stopped at the home of Frank Towne to ask for the people ill in the home. The arrival of Dr. H. D. Hopkins in his car at that time caused her horse to turn around, with the result that a wheel was broken. Mrs. Eastman was uninjured.

PLAINFIELD

The meeting of the Mothers' club with Mrs. Lucretia Little is to be held Thursday afternoon, May 12, and not May 5, as announced yesterday.

In the Conservatory.

"You are so awkward!" laughed Miss Nan.

"You'd never learn to flirt a fan."

"I daresay you are right," said Bert.

"But watch me, I can fan a flirt."

—Boston Transcript.

Incredulous.

Rastus—Ah done heerd dat dey foun' Columbus' bones.

Sam—G'long, man! Dere wasn't no crap shootin' in dem days.—Boston Transcript.

THE ELECTRIC MAN

FIXTURES OF STYLE AND BEAUTY

are our fixtures! exclaims the Electric Man. All the better homes in the city are being supplied with our home lights. Let us show you how you too may save money—and ugliness in home decoration—by installing our beauty-lights.

"Look for the Electric Man."

THE CUSHMAN CO.,

14 Elm Street. Phone 205-R.

NORTHFIELD

Mrs. Nellie A. Porter Died in Washington D. C., After Second Operation.

Word was received in Northfield on Tuesday of the death of Mrs. Nellie A. Porter in Washington, D. C., after the second serious surgical operation. The remains will be brought to Northfield for burial in the family lot in Elmwood cemetery Thursday afternoon. A short funeral service will be held in John McCormick's undertaking parlors at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Porter was a former resident of Northfield and a frequent visitor in Vermont, where she was very well known. She was survived by one brother, Frank Chipman, and adopted daughter, Mrs. Clarence Buck of Jackson, Mich.

Miss Helen Penell, who has been spending the past week with her sister, Mrs. Warren Greenwood, returned Sunday to her home in Swanton.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker returned to their home in Dorchester, Mass., Sunday night, after spending the past week in town, guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Kimball. They attended the junior week festivities at Norwich university, having two sons in college.

Mr. and Mrs. Marble of Essex Junction visited friends in town a few days the past week. They were former residents of this town.

Announcements have been received here of the wedding of Wayne Hedges, son of Jesse Hedges of Northfield, and Miss Ruth Wilmet of Denver, Col. Miss Wilmet is an accomplished pianist and harpist. Mr. Hedges is very well known in the musical circles, being a violinist of note. His friends in Northfield will extend congratulations.

Miss Mildred Kimball, who spent several weeks in Massachusetts with friends and relatives, has returned to her home in town.

Robert Parsons of Newark, N. J., is spending a few weeks in town, a guest at the home of Frank T. Parsons. Mr. Parsons, who underwent a very serious surgical operation, is not able to resume his position and he will remain here until he gains his strength.

Mrs. J. E. Meagher, who has been with her mother, Mrs. Hannah McCarthy, for the past two weeks, returned Sunday night to her home in Burlington.

The 3d cavalry, which has been on a week's practice march, camped in Northfield Friday night. They made camp at Norwich university. They came from Warren to Northfield and left early Saturday morning for the return trip.

The regular meeting of the Nisatin club was held in the rooms Friday evening. The members of the Community club of Northfield Falls were the guests of the evening. Refreshments were served and a very enjoyable evening spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Reynolds and three sons of Barre were Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. M. M. Curtis on Cross street.

The Real Objection.

He—And so, your father objects to my calling.

She—Oh, no! What he objects to is your not having any calling.—Boston Transcript.

Would Papa That.

Eloping girl—Papa will be all unstrung.

Resourceful groom—That's all right; we'll wire him.—Boston Transcript.

Unreasonable.

Hub—Last month's bills are awful.

Wife—Last month's bills are awful. Didn't I tell you you must practice economy?

Wife—I am practicing it, but you can't expect me to be very expert at it after only a few weeks.—Boston Transcript.

The Times Classified Columns

Offers an Inexpensive Service in Advertising Your Wants, What You Have to Sell, Or Exchange, Or to Rent.

Try An Adv. in

The Times

THE CUSHMAN CO.,

14 Elm Street. Phone 205-R.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

Something About Fleck Production of "Faust" and "Aida."

The following letter and criticisms received by Manager A. B. Carter of the Barre opera house concerning the Fleck Grand Opera company, which presents Faust and Aida in Barre the coming Saturday, will be of interest to the public:

Management, opera house, Barre, Vt. Gentlemen: Enclosed please find the cast for both Aida and Faust that the Fleck Grand Opera company will present in your house on Saturday, May 7.

Enclosed also please find some criticisms of Mlle. Fanette Rezia, who was the star of the opera comique in Paris and also the star of the French Opera company in New Orleans.

We also send you some criticisms of Mlle. Fanette Rezia while at the opera comique and also in New Orleans, the only difference being that Mlle. Rezia does all the ballet dancing.

The people of Barre and the surrounding towns are indeed fortunate in securing these two wonderful artists as this is their first appearance in the northern part of America.

If there is anything else we can do to help put this over in the way it should be as there has never been such a wonderful company out on the road before, kindly let us know and we will attend to it immediately.

Very truly yours,

Fleck brothers.

New York, April 28, 1921.

Mlle. Fanette Rezia.

Mlle. Rezia, the new soprano star of the Fleck Grand Opera company, will without doubt make just the same sensation in this country as she did in Paris while a member of the famous opera comique. Last year when the French people of New Orleans decided to give a season of grand opera with an entirely French cast Mlle. Fanette Rezia was selected from the numerous stars of the Paris Grand Opera company and the opera comique. She sang exactly three times in New Orleans and was justly called the most beautiful and most artistic of all the French stars by the newspaper critics. When the great fire that endangered so many lives broke out in the New Orleans opera house, Mlle. Rezia lost not only her entire costume wardrobe but also lost a priceless string of pearls that the French people had given her in gratitude for the wonderful work she did during the great war, when she went from camp to camp cheering the soldiers on. Mlle. Rezia has 42 operas in her repertoire.

Some of Her Criticisms.

Mlle. Rezia is the possessor of a wondrously pure, clear voice, of which she is absolute master, and she adds to this voice and the ability to manage it, a charming personality that goes out over the footlights and claims her audiences as her own.—New Orleans Times.

The star of the evening was easily Mlle. Rezia, her voice is superb, her acting earnest and her personality most charming. In a word she was an ideal Marguerite.—New Orleans Times.

The Marguerite of Mlle. Rezia was a delightful, bewitching. Possessed of a lyric soprano voice of the purest quality she sang and acted her part to perfection. One would have to go far to find a better Marguerite.—Le Journal, Paris.

Margot Ladd—Premiere Danseuse.

Mlle. Ladd of the opera comique was one of the many stars that left France to go to New Orleans for the opera season that they expected to have but was cancelled on account of fire. Mlle. Ladd was one of the hardest hit by the conflagration for all of her superb costumes were destroyed. Already, however, she has progressed towards the replacement of her operative trousseau.

Mlle. Ladd before going to New Orleans was the star dancer of the opera comique, Paris, and the fact that she will dance in your town should be of great advertising value to you.

Gifted with rare grace, Mlle. Ladd showed herself to be eminently entitled to be the premiere danseuse of the opera comique. Each one of her dances was a graphic and beautiful illustration of the idea she desired to convey.—New Orleans Times-Picayune.

Mlle. Ladd of the opera comique, Paris, was warmly applauded as she presented in order the favorite Marie Antoinette, Le Clavecin and the Gypsy Passion dance of the two daggers. Her performance was one of remarkable grace and beauty.—New York Globe.

Mlle. Ladd in the "Greek Hop Dance" was as lithe, graceful and as willowy as could be.—New York Herald.

HE BELIEVES IT SAVED HIS LIFE

Montpelier Man Eats Good, Sleeps Sound and Feels Just Fine in Every Way, He States.

"I don't believe anybody my age feels any better than I do now," said Joseph Lamery, of 23 East State street, Montpelier, Vt., in relating his experience with Tanlac.

"I suffered a general breakdown a little over a year ago as the result of influenza, and following this I had a case of pneumonia that nearly proved the end of me. I had been in a run-down condition before these troubles came on and they put me in such bad shape that I never expected to be well again. I suffered from indigestion all the time and my appetite played out completely. I was as nervous and restless as could be and couldn't half sleep. I was worried a lot, too, with dizziness, headache, bloating and a bad taste in my mouth, and I hadn't been able to work for some time. I knew if I didn't get something to help me I would soon be done for."

"It's certainly lucky for me that I decided to try Tanlac, for it has put me in just as fine shape as I could want to be. I eat good and hearty, sleep good and sound and feel as fine as a fiddle. I actually believe Tanlac has saved my life and I can't say enough for it for making me so strong and healthy."

Tanlac is sold in Barre by Cummings & Lewis, and by the leading druggists in every town.—Adv.

WEST FAIRLEE CENTER

The week of evangelistic services was very successful. The attendance at the meetings was good and 48 persons expressed a definite purpose either to begin the Christian life or to renew their devotion to the cause of Christ. The service Sunday, May 1, included communion, in which all who had newly decided to follow Christ were asked to join.

Plans have been made for a May party, to be held Saturday afternoon, May 7. The committee in charge of arrangements consists of Mrs. B. M. Ball, Miss Alice Cook and Miss Beatrice Russ.

Elmer Hatch has moved onto his farm on Wild hill and Harp Southworth has begun moving his goods to the Kimball place.

A series of monthly hand concerts at the Sunday service will begin Sunday, May 8. The West Fairlee Center band is in good trim and all who attend next Sunday are sure of a treat. The day will be observed as mothers' Sunday, with an appropriate sermon.

THE SECRET OF THE 9's

IT ALL COMES OUT TO-MORROW

See this paper then for details of the big Anniversary celebration, Utica, N. Y., to Houlton, Me.—in your Town.

WATCH FOR DATE

Park Theatre

TO-MORROW

His sweetheart turned him down because he was too good, so he started out to make old hades sizzle!

TO-MORROW

Opera House Saturday, May 7th

THE SEASON'S TRIUMPH

Direct from New York City

THE FLECK GRAND OPERA COMPANY

WITH THE NEW YORK CITY ORCHESTRA

in the two Superb Masterpieces

Matinee FAUST Matinee

and Evening AIDA Evening

Guest Artists from Metropolitan Opera House Boston Grand Opera Co.

NEW COSTUMES NEW SCENERY

A GRAND OPERA CHORUS BALLET

PRICES...$2.00, $1.50, $1.00—Plus Tax

Tickets on sale at the box office now. Mail orders accompanied by check and self addressed envelopes now.

Tanlac Sold by The Barre Drug Co., New Park Theatre Bld. E. A. Drown, 48 North Main Street. $1.00 per bottle

MARSHFIELD

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Dudley of East Montpelier and Edson York of Calais visited at E. L. Spencer's last Friday.

Miss Carrie Beckley of Barre was a visitor in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Sverdrup went to Eden last Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Moore.

Dr. H. S. Carver of Barre was a visitor in town last Thursday.

F. C. Phelps is moving his family into the Hollister house.

Mrs. Florence Burnham was at home from Middlesex for a brief stay last week.

M. C. Ide has gone to South Cabot to work for Wesley Hall.

Miss Emily H. Stiekney of the Kurn Hattin homes is spending a few days in town.

Mrs. Eleanor Inglis and two children of Barre visited her parents last week.

Royce Pitkin was at home from the U. V. M. over Sunday.

There were in services at the M. E. church last Sunday, as the pastor was attending conference.

Elbert Davis entertained about 25 of his young friends at his home last week Monday evening, the occasion being his 13th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Packer went to Barre Sunday to hear Bishop Hughes.

Mrs. Elvira Carr has fitted up a booth on the Spencer lawn, where she is serving ice cream, sandwiches, milk, etc.

Rev. Arthur Brotherton arrived Saturday to commence his work as pastor of the Congregational church. He gave a very interesting sermon Sunday morning on the text "What doth it profit a man to gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

The little daughter of Wesley Chester is quite seriously ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. Melinda Bemis observed her 89th birthday last Saturday. She is in very feeble health at present.

Mere Juvenile Research.

"I'm surprised to find a Boston child enjoying Mother Goose."

"Oh, little Waldo is much interested in reading the various rhymes and tracing them back to the original legends or myths."—Louisville Courier and Journal.

A Conservationist.

Mother—Willie, have you no manners?

Willie—Well, if I waste 'em now I won't have any when company comes.—Boston Transcript.

A Solvent.

"Liquor always loosened up our patrons," said a waiter reminiscently. Meaning, we suppose, that it released the "tip" from the tippers.—Boston Transcript.

A Slam.

First stenographer—I don't believe half I see in print.

Second ditto—Judging from your spelling that must include what you see in the dictionary.—Boston Transcript.

A Conversationist.

Willie—Well, if I waste 'em now I won't have any when company comes.—Boston Transcript.

Barre's Palace of Silent Art—The New

PARK THEATRE

Presents for To-day Only

THE THOMAS H. INCE SPECIAL

Homespun Folks

Featuring Lloyd Hughes and an All-Star cast. A mother story that hits the greatest target in all the world—the human heart. Also

BURTON HOLMES, Also MOONSHINE Comedy

MUSIC ON OUR HOPE-JONES $10,000 ORGAN

TO-MORROW

His sweetheart turned him down because he was too good, so he started out to make old hades sizzle!

TO-MORROW

Opera House Saturday, May 7th

THE SEASON'S TRIUMPH

Direct from New York City

THE FLECK GRAND OPERA COMPANY

WITH THE NEW YORK CITY ORCHESTRA

in the two Superb Masterpieces